RE: Rock the Capital v. Legislative Audit Adv. Comm.
No: 34 MD 2019

Dear Rock the Capital:

Records reveal that a Petition for Review Filed was filed in the above referenced matter and has been docketed at 34 MD 2019.

Please be advised that as a Pro Se litigant you are eligible to access and view your case on the Court's Web Portal. To do so, please register for a UJS portal account (you only need to register once) Registration link: <https://ujportal.pacourts.us/Register.aspx> . Make note of your user name and password.

You can then utilize this case related access code: YVZMYQC6 to gain access to this specific case. You are also able to submit any authorized filings to the court electronically. See Pa.R.A.P. 125. To do so log in at: <https://ujportal.pacourts.us/Login.aspx> ; go to the "eCommerce" dropdown menu and select PACFile, then enter the access code provided in this letter.

This access is not intended for general use. Litigants bear ultimate responsibility for any unauthorized dissemination of documents gained by the use of the access code and shall immediately notify the Chief Clerk's Office in writing that they suspect the code has been compromised so that the Court can regenerate a new access code for the case. Misuse will result in electronic access being terminated.

If you have specific questions about the PACFile application, please refer to the help information provided on the UJS portal site for further assistance.

Very truly yours,

Michael Kimmel, Esq.
Chief Clerk of Commonwealth Court
